

Are you Ready for Business?

- Thinking of using your professional skills, knowledge and experience to start a business?
- Recently made redundant, or your job's at risk? Considering self-employment as the way forward?

If so, our Ready for Business programme could be for you...

This unique new business start-up programme offers potential start-up businesses the opportunity to get their business ready for success through proper investment.

A bespoke package of services from Business West will support you in the development of a uniquely structured and tailored business plan to act as a springboard for your future business success, as well as improve the chances of loan funding being secured.

Programme includes:

- ▶ An introductory seminar exploring the concept of self-employment or starting a business
- ▶ One to one assessment with an experienced business adviser, with the production of an individual action plan tailored to your business idea
- ▶ An intensive support programme, including guidance, advice and peer learning, leading to the development of a robust business plan
- ▶ Dedicated support in an application for bank funding
- ▶ Ongoing support after business start up
